The Aura of Patmos, Dodecanese

The Aura of Patmos, Dodecanese

In the heart of Chora on the sacred island of Patmos, this exceptional historical residence of 1800s captures the timeless beauty and soulful aura of the Aegean. Traditional architectural elements blend effortlessly with refined interiors, creating an atmosphere of understated luxury. The tastefully restored residence of 210 sqm is set in a plot of 175 sqm and unfolds through generous living spaces designed for both relaxation and entertaining, featuring 5 inviting bedrooms each with its own characteristics, 5 bathrooms, a fully equipped kitchen, a living room with a fireplace, and several dining areas. Wooden floors, high ceilings and artisanal details enhance the warmth of the interiors, while the home's mosaic-tiled terraces are the ideal spaces for alfresco dining overlooking the endless blue of the sea. Every corner of the property reflects the unique energy of Patmos, a place of tranquility, beauty and quiet sophistication. The cosmopolitan restaurants and bars of the island are just a few steps away from this rare property. (8869125)
